

Mission Statement

Excellence – Whatever it takes!

We at Sundown Middle School, value a supportive atmosphere in which every student has a sense of belonging and school pride, and develops compassion, empathy, and respect for self and others. In order to challenge all students to think critically, we are committed to identifying and demonstrating the best instructional practices, and providing students with the curriculum, assessment, support, and time they need to achieve and maintain high academic standards. We will continue to offer a broad range of extracurricular experiences that meet the interests of all students. Through effective communication, we will involve and seek the support of parents and other members of the community as partners in the education of all students.
